Justice A. L. Booth on Saturday put J. G. Stutz, the showman, under $100 bonds to appear Tuesday and answer to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. On Tuesday Stutz was before Justice Booth and held to the District court under bonds of $250.

Laurence Farrell of Denver has issued a challenge to Willard Bean, champion of Utah, in which he agrees to stop Bean in ten rounds. Bean advises us that he has accepted the challenge. Farrell is the same "pug" with whom Bean tried to arrange a match in Provo several weeks ago.

Have that broken glass replaced.

The Salt Lake Herald of Sunday reports the sale of a half interest in the Undine mine at Silver City to Idaho parties. W. H. Wilson of Provo retains his interest in the property and is confident that he will make a big mine out of it. There has already been found considerable ore in the Undine and it should soon become a good steady producer.

The announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mabel L. Bee, daughter of Robert Bee, one of Provo's most solid merchants, and Mr. Ferdinand J. Boorey, of the merchandise firm of Boorey & Wood, which will take place the first week in November. Both of the contracting parties are popular and well known young people and have hosts of friends who will extend congratulations and best wishes.

Notice has been received by James Whitmore, James B. Whitehead, William Clyde, George Packard and Joseph Allen, the men who are to draw the reward of $500 for the capture of Maxwell, that warrants have been drawn in their favor for their respective amounts and that the money is now subjected to their orders. The first four named get $37.50 each and Allen gets the remainder $350.—Springville correspondence Salt Lake Tribune, Monday.

Mr. R. Jay Lambert, of the Elkhorn Pharmacy, has leased the Southworth dancing hall for the winter. It is to be renovated and put in proper shape by November 1st, when he will give his opening ball. It is Mr. Lambert's intention to give a series of select parties and club dances, with a children's and ladies' matinee on Saturday afternoons. All the new and latest dances will be taught during the winter, and the ball is to be arranged for private receptions, musicales, teas, balls, etc.

Marriage Licenses.

Marriage license was granted Monday to City Marshal Newell Knight and Frances Clark. They were married privately the same evening. We extend congratulations and best wishes.

Marriage licenses were issued Tuesday to Daniel R. Peay, aged 29, and Agnes Jean Vincent, aged 26; also to Walter Holliday, aged 24, and Zibiah R. McDaniel, aged 18, all of Provo. Also to John Barton, aged 25, of Pleasant Grove, and Elizabeth Morton, aged 22, of London; and to J. R. Rollins, of Ogden, and Susana Webber, of Provo.

Sorosis Meeting.

The Utah Sorosis spent a very pleasant afternoon Wednesday, October 12th, in their newly furnished club rooms in the Eldredge block.

After a few preliminary remarks from the president, Mrs. Beck read a paper written by Mrs. Edith Martin on "Flower Myths."

After a recess of ten minutes Miss Reynolds read a paper on "The Origin of the Gods."

Both papers were enjoyed very much by the members of the club.

Club then adjourned for one week.

The above item was received by us too late for insertion in the last issue.

Sam J. Kenyon Dead.

Sam J. Kenyon, whose serious illness from an accident at the lake and an overdose of morphine was detailed in our last issue, died in this city on Sunday morning at 4 o'clock, without regaining consciousness. The remains were taken to Salt Lake on Sunday afternoon and on Monday to his old home in Iowa for burial. Mr. Kenyon was a well known and highly respected citizen of Utah and leaves many sorrowing friends.

More Incendiarism at Richfield.

It is with regret we learn of the destruction by fire of the entire plant of the Richfield Advocate. While, we think, on the wrong side, that paper has been a most fearless, intelligent and aggressive advocate of the Republican party and principles, and Brothers Meteor have the sincere sympathy of all the fraternity. The fire, like that of the tabernacle last week, was undoubtedly incendiary.

Mining Locations.

The "Ranger" group of two claims and the "Nila" group of four claims located about 4 miles easterly of Soldier Summit, were filed with the county recorder Monday, October 17, by Wm. Bowen, et al.
